Young Masters<sup>2012</sup>

nurturing creativity through crafts at the Ohio Craft Museum

Session I
June 18–22

Be an Apprentice!

Spend the week working with master craftspeople, using traditional media such as clay, glass, fiber, metal and other materials to make traditional and modern craft objects.

Session II
June 25–29

World Craft Caravan

All aboard for a worldwide adventure! Explore folk art from exotic locations such as the mountains of Peru, villages of Mexico, the plains of Africa, and much more!

Session III
July 9–13

Celebrate Craft

Explore a variety of cultural celebrations and observe different holidays or festivals each day, making cool things like Ukrainian Pysanky eggs, Filipino lanterns and more. It's a craft jubilee!

Session IV
July 23–27

Happy Birthday, Columbus!

It's a week-long party for the bicentennial! Create projects inspired by art and artists from our own fine city. You'll doodle like James Thurber, stitch like Aminah Robinson, and paint like Roy Lichtenstein. Become Columbus' next great artist!

Session V
August 6–10

Be An Apprentice!

This theme is so popular, we're offering it twice! Spend the week making traditional and modern craft objects with a variety of media. Sessions I and V will offer different projects.

Summer Day Camp

in the Arts for ages 6-12

Celebrate craft this summer, travelling across the globe and around our own city! We'll throw a birthday bash for Columbus' bicentennial, and have a ball observing international holidays and festivals.

Master craft artists will lead the festivities, helping campers create projects using clay, glass, metal, recycled materials and more. Join the party for a week of creative fun!
