Ohio Designer Craftsmen

Ohio Designer Craftsmen is a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting fine craft for over 50 years. Its mission is to provide professional support to craftspeople and build public awareness, appreciation and collection of fine craft.

The Venue

The Shaker Heights Arts and Music Festival, now in its 9th year, is presented by Ohio Designer Craftsmen, the Shaker Heights Arts Council and the City of Shaker Heights, Ohio. Located in one of Cleveland's most affluent communities.

The Location

Because the former site is currently under construction for major redevelopment to create the new "vibrant and walkable" Van Aken District, the 2016 Shaker Heights Arts & Music Festival will be held on the grounds of the Shaker Heights Middle School.

So stick with us, we'll be going back to the new Van Aken District when it is complete. In the meantime, the site this year has some great assets:

- Highly visible location
- On the corner of Warrensville Road and Shaker Boulevard
- Convenient parking at the Shaker Heights Middle School

Artist Amenities

- Live music and entertainment
- Complimentary refreshment ticket and a Sunday Morning Brunch.
- Food selections for every taste offered by a variety of vendors on location,
- Thousands of shoppers, all attending the show with FREE ADMISSION
- Friendly, helpful staff
- Booth sitters
- Great neighborhood and elite clientele.
- Comprehensive advertising campaign
- The booth fee is just $299!!

GUIDELINES FOR ENTRY

Artist Eligibility

- Artist must be present from opening until closing both days of the show.
- Work must be of original concept, design and execution; no kits, commercial mold; or buy-resell.
- Only the work of individual or collaborating artists may be shown and sold. Collaborating artists may show only their joint work.
- Studios wherein the applicant artist designs the work and creates it alongside assistants may participate if the studio has no more than 6 full-time (or the equivalent part-time) assistants, not including non-artist assistants such as office help.
- Images submitted for jurying must be representative of the majority of work to be exhibited and sold in terms of both quality and price range. Jurors use booth images to judge the overall appearance and make-up of your display.
- Violators of these rules will be required to remove the items in question from their display, and risk expulsion from the fair and loss of their booth fees. If you are not sure if you work qualifies, please call for clarification.

Application Process

Print this application, fill in the Entry Form and mail in to ODC (address at end of Entry Form) along with your payment and digital images on CD-ROM. See digital images specifications on the second page of this prospectus under "About Your Images."

Jury Procedure

Your images will be scored by a panel of jurors who change annually. Applicants' identities are not indicated in any way to the jurors. Jurors are chosen based on their fine craft/art expertise, and an effort is made to have jurors specializing in a variety of media. Exhibitor numbers in each category will be limited to ensure a balanced show. However, only the top scorers in each medium will be accepted. Up to 10% of the spaces can be filled at the discretion of the Artistic Director, in order to introduce new artists and/or ensure a quality, balanced show.

2D Reproductions Policy

Reproductions of two-dimensional work are permitted, subject to the following stipulations:

- Reproductions must be clearly marked as such. The word "reproduction" must appear on each piece. The word "print" is not to be substituted for "reproduction."
- Reproductions must be signed and numbered in editions of no more than 750.
- Up to one wall of the artist's booth may show framed reproductions. They must be displayed separately from originals. All other reproductions must be kept in a browsing bin, and are considered to be an ancillary part of the artist's booth.

Awards

Cash awards will be conferred at the show by an on-site juror. Award winners will receive an invitation to return to next year's fair, bypassing the jury.

Fees

Anyone may apply to ODC shows; however, only members may actually exhibit.

ODC members receive a two-point bonus on their jury scores. Annual membership is $35 for an individual, $45 for a couple, and may be paid after acceptance, along with the booth fee.

Application: $25 per medium entered.
